This policy applies to all staff employed by the OWLS Academy Trust. Throughout this policy, unless indicated otherwise, all references to 'Head Teacher' include the Executive Head Teacher.

The procedure applies to all HR policies and procedures except those which specifically provide for an alternative appeals process.

Composition of an Appeal Panel

The Trustees of the OWLS Academy Trust have the right to be represented at appeals against dismissal; this will normally be as a member of the panel. Appeals will therefore be heard by a panel of 3 governors / trustees who were not involved in the original decision making process, as follow:

- Appeals against dismissal:
 - 1 Trustee of the OWLS Academy Trust plus 2 governors; or
 - If the Trustees elect not to be represented, 3 governors.
- All other appeals:
 - 3 governors

If, due to a shortage of governors, or the nature of the case, it is not possible to identify 3 previously uninvolved governors / trustees then:

- Up to 1 panel member may be appointed from the governing body of any other schools within the OWLS Academy Trust; or
- The Chair of the appeal panel should consult with all parties with a view to reaching agreement (advice will be sought from HR Services and/or Governor Services as necessary)

Wherever possible the panel should be representative.

Registering an Appeal

All appeals must be registered with the Head Teacher within 5 working days of the employee receiving their outcome letter, unless the relevant policy states otherwise. Appeals must be registered in writing, preferably by completing the Appeal Registration Form (Appendix A), though a letter of appeal will also be accepted.

Grounds for Appeal

When submitting an appeal, whether using the Appeal Registration Form or sending a letter of appeal, the employee should specify the grounds for their appeal (e.g. procedural flaw, unreasonable sanction, new evidence) and whether they are appealing against the decision to impose a sanction or the level of sanction applied if applicable.

New Evidence

Any new evidence submitted as part of an appeal should be accompanied by an explanation of how it would have influenced the original decision and why it was not available at the original hearing / meeting.

The panel may decide, during the course of the hearing, that further investigation of the new evidence is required before it can be properly considered. In such circumstances the appeal hearing will be adjourned whilst this is undertaken. The investigation should be completed as quickly as possible and the appeal hearing reconvened at the earliest opportunity

Convening an Appeal Hearing

The appeal hearing should be convened as soon as possible by the Head Teacher. If possible it should be scheduled to take place during the employee's normal working hours. Consideration must be given as to whether the employee requires any adjustments (e.g. hearing loop, disabled access).

The head teacher will write to the employee to notify them of the details of the hearing giving them a minimum of 10 working days' notice. The letter should include the employee's right to be represented by a work colleague or Trade Union representative and confirm the potential outcomes of the hearing.

The employee should also receive copies of any relevant supporting documentation, such as:

- Appeal registration form (or letter of appeal);
- Any new evidence or supporting documents submitted by the employee or management representative as part of the appeal;
- Statement from management in response to the points raised in the appeal;
- All documents used at the original hearing / meeting;
- Notes from the original hearing / meeting;
- The letter confirming the outcome of the original hearing / meeting;
- The names of any witnesses that management intend to call.

A copy of the supporting documentation (as referred to in clause 6.3 above) should also be provided to each panel member in advance of the hearing.

The names of any witnesses that the employee wishes to call should be submitted no later than 5 working days prior to the appeal hearing.

A note-taker should be arranged.

Witnesses

It is the responsibility of the manager to ensure that they invite any witnesses (if required) to attend the hearing.

Likewise, it is the employee's responsibility to ensure that they invite any witnesses (if required) to support their case at the hearing. The employee's Trade Union Representative / work colleague can act on behalf of the employee to arrange their attendance at the hearing if permission from the employee has been granted.

Witnesses should only be present at the hearing whilst questions are being asked of them by the employee, their representative, the manager and panel members.

Failure to Attend

If an employee fails to attend the appeal hearing without giving an acceptable reason, the hearing will proceed in their absence. Where an employee or their representative is unable to attend due to an unforeseen event a new hearing date should be arranged within 5 working days of the original hearing date, subject to panel availability. If the employee fails to attend the rearranged hearing without there being exceptional circumstances, the meeting will go ahead in their absence.

Conducting an Appeal Hearing

The appeal hearing should take the following format:

1. The Chair of the panel will introduce those present and outline the procedure to be followed. An employee who is not accompanied will be reminded of their right to representation.
2. The employee and/or their representative will present the reason for their appeal, including any new evidence.
3. The employee and/or their representative may call a witness to support their case.
4. The management representative (i.e. the person who made the original decision) may question the witness.
5. The panel may question the witness.

Steps 3-5 will continue until all of the employee's witnesses have been heard and questioned.

6. The management representative may question the employee and their representative on their case presentation.
7. The panel may question the employee and their representative on their case presentation.
8. The management representative will present their response to the appeal, including any new evidence.
9. The management representative may call a witness to support their case.
10. The employee and/or their representative may question the witness.
11. The panel may question the witness.

Steps 9-11 will continue until all of the management representative's witnesses have been heard and questioned.

12. The employee and/or their representative may question the management representative on their case presentation.
13. The panel may question the management representative on their case presentation.
14. The employee and/or their representative will have the opportunity to sum up their case.
15. The management representative will have the opportunity to sum up their case.
16. The management representative, employee and their representative will leave the room so that the panel can deliberate.
17. Having deliberated on the matters placed before them, the panel will set out their decision and then recall and advise those attending the hearing of the outcome.

Possible Outcomes

The possible outcomes of an appeal hearing are:

- Uphold the original decision and, if applicable, maintain any sanction; or
- Overturn the original decision (in whole or part) and implement a new decision. In cases where new evidence has been presented at the appeal hearing this could include increasing the original sanction.

The panel may also wish to make additional recommendations (e.g. training, guidance, etc)

Notification of Outcome

The employee should be advised in writing of the outcome of the appeal hearing. A copy of the notes from the hearing should also be provided.

The employee will have no further right of appeal against the decision.

Appendix A: Appeal Registration Form

To be completed and returned to the Head Teacher within 5 working days of receiving written notification of the outcome of a hearing / meeting. Please include any relevant supporting documentation that you wish to be considered at the appeal hearing.
